

Our offices are open to in-person appointments and walk-ins with certain precautions.

- We still encourage our consumers to meet with us through telephone. We can answer your questions, coordinate many services by phone, and set up in-person appointments as necessary.
- Paperwork can continue to be sent to us through the mail or dropped off in the locked box outside our main entrances at our Watertown or New Bremen offices.
- For anyone entering our building for services, expect to be asked a number of COVID-19 screening questions, and wear a face covering due to social distancing requirements.
- Thank you for your patience as we work together to provide services and keep everyone safe and healthy.
